

Riwoche Tibetan Buddhist Temple

Dzogchen Retreat with Ven. Khenpo Yeshe Gyaltzen Rinpoche

Sunday, May 7, 2017 to Saturday, May 13, 2017
8 am to 8:30 pm each day, ending at noon on the 13th

Lonchenpa (1308-1364) is the main Tibetan lineage holder of the Nyingma Dzogchen teachings and is the author of many treatises. Ven. Khenpo Yeshe Gyaltzen Rinpoche will guide retreatants through Lonchenpa's treatise, The Excellent Path to Enlightenment. This precious teaching will illuminate how the mind can be transformed, suffering overcome, and the path to true understanding to the nature of reality revealed. Attendance for the full week is required. In addition, one must have permission by a qualified Vajrayana master to attend the retreat. Retreat is limited to 25 students.

Cost: For registration, the cost is $600 CAD. Tenpai Jindag members receive a discount at $500. Registration must be made prior to the retreat.

Required texts – These will be available in the Temple store. Both are required.
The Excellent Path to Enlightenment – Sutrayana $25
The Excellent Path to Enlightenment $25

If you have any questions or concerns, please email riwoche@gmail.com.

Biography

Ven. Khenpo Yeshe Gyaltzen Rinpoche Rinpoche was born in Riwoche, Kham, in Eastern Tibet. He entered the local monastery at a young age and received extensive training as a Tibetan Doctor, whilst performing several retreats. He came to Nepal to study with HH Dilgo Khyentse Rinpoche in 1985 and became one of his close disciples. He completed his studies and taught extensively at the Shechen Shedra (Monastic College) in Nepal as directed by HH Dilgo Khyentse Rinpoche until 2000. In 2001, he was appointed as the principal tutor to HH Dilgo Khyentse Yangsi Rinpoche.

Riwoche Tibetan Buddhist Temple

28 Heintzman Street Toronto, Ontario, M6P 2J6
(One block east of Keele St. and north of Dundas St. West)
(416) 766-7964 www.riwoche.com